Yellow warning
Snow

Between 10:42 Thu 4 Feb 2021 and
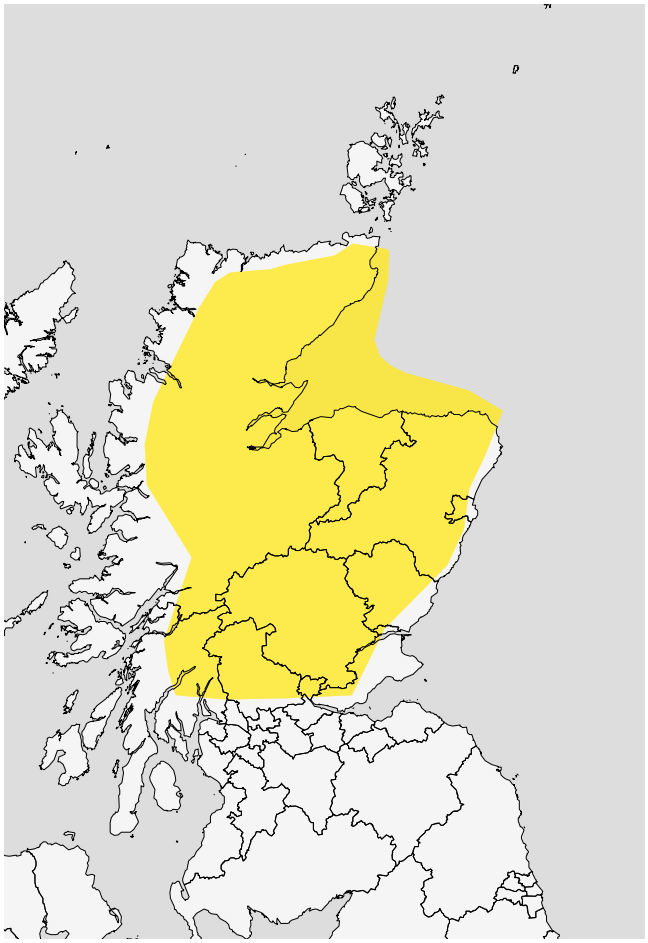
12:00 Sat 6 Feb 2021



Prolonged periods of snow could bring significant disruption.

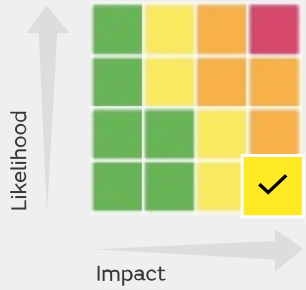
What to expect

- Power cuts may occur and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected
- There is a small chance that long delays and cancellations on bus, rail and air travel could occur
- There is a small chance that communities could be cut off for several days
- There is a small chance that long interruptions to power supplies and other services, such as gas, water, telephone and mobile phone coverage, may occur

Further details

Periods of snow, heavy at times, will affect much of inland central and northern Scotland through Thursday, Friday and into Saturday, mainly on high ground.

A further 20 to 30 cm may fall above 200 metres. 5 to 10, perhaps locally 20 cm could even fall at low levels by Saturday, though is is less certain, and rain or sleet may occur here at times. Strong winds could lead to significant drifting of snow and temporary blizzard conditions.



✓ Very low likelihood of high impacts
